JESSICA BOEVERS TO MATT BOGART

7.3.06

Jessica and Matt met in 1990 while they were both musical theatre performance majors at the University of Cincinnati's College-Conservatory of Music. Both having strong musical talents in common, they independently moved to New York City where they both starred in Broadway shows. Friendship turned into romance, and Matt proposed on a short trip to the spectacular Mexican coastline. Music and the ocean became important elements in choosing a venue for their wedding. When Jessica and Matt found Wequassett, they fell in love with the sleepy charm of the small inn on the water. Family members sang as Jessica and Matt were walked down the aisle by their parents. The ceremony was intense and emotional, because the bride and groom wrote their own vows, brilliant friends wrote songs and poems for them, all guests signed a marriage contract, and the mothers filled a unity vase with sand and shells. Each guest wrote Jessica and Matt a piece of advice or a blessing on a piece of paper and placed it in the unity vase. After the wedding celebration and honeymoon, Jessica and Matt read every note. The sentiments of love and support will remain with them forever!
