Kate and Greg met in college, and there seemed to be an immediate connection. After graduation, Kate moved to Manhattan and Greg to Boston, but a long-distance relationship was not part of the plan. They reconnected while on Cape Cod in 2007 and quickly realized, according to Kate, that "we did not want to waste anymore time apart!"

Greg and Kate both grew up visiting Cape Cod with their families every summer and they had created many fond memories of their time at Oyster Harbors. Naturally, it was an easy decision to plan their wedding at that special spot. The elements of the day were carefully selected to ensure that the event was classic and elegant but with an added contemporary touch. "The cake had a single white magnolia flower on it, a sugar replica of the flower on my dress," explains Kate. The unique bridesmaids' dresses had a modern ruffled skirt that inspired the lush floral arrangements filled with peonies and roses in varying shades of pink. "I loved having time to plan the wedding with our families; every detail had significance and meaning to us."

BEAUTIFUL COASTS AND HARBORS

Dreaming of the quintessential seaside wedding on Cape Cod? Boasting miles of shoreline filled with sand dunes, beach grass, picturesque harbors, and beautiful beaches, the Cape offers a multitude of wedding venues to capture a true wedding by the sea. Karen Rood, of Wychmere Harbor Club says, "Cape Cod blends the old-fashion charm of yesteryear with all the modern amenities of today. The Cape is a natural for anyone possessing affection for the sea."

The scenic Wychmere Harbor Club exemplifies the best of the Cape, Rood explains that "panoramic views of Wychmere Harbor and Nantucket Sound can be viewed from our indoor ballroom (shown above)." Other "on the water" offerings include outdoor ceremonies or tented receptions, arrivals or departures from a private dock (shown at right), and access to a private beach for photographs. A truly lovely spot for you and your guests to enjoy the beauty that is Cape Cod.

"While dating, we visited Cape Cod on many occasions. We fell in love with the quaintness and charm the Cape offered. After getting engaged, we knew we wanted a seaside wedding and a weekend celebration in a location that felt like 'us.' Cape Cod could not have been more perfect for our special day."
