WITH THE GOAL OF PROVIDING wedding planning with panache, Victoria Scott opened Belamour Design in 2008. The boutique studio offers wedding and event design with a passionate staff that is always aiming to express each client's personal style through their work. Exceptional service and personal attention are guaranteed. To see what Belamour can do for you, visit them online at belamourdesign.com.

[1] ELEGANT ENGAGEMENTS It's official! Allison Wildes Liset's Elegant Engagements is the Cape and Islands' Best Wedding Planner. The business, based in Sandwich, Massachusetts, received the honor as part of WBZ TV4's 2008 A-List competition, but it's been generating buzz for a decade now. When Liset started out, her wedding planning agency was the only one on the Cape. Countless thankful clients later, Elegant Engagements is still the go-to resource for dream destination weddings in the region. Visit capeweddingplanner.com to find out more.

[2] CUPCAKE CHARLIES On June 1, 2008, Cupcake Charlie's opened its doors to hordes of hungry customers who were more than happy to abide by the cupcakery's slogan, "Life Is Short, Eat a Cupcake." With an array of whimsical selections including "Grammy's Carrot Cup," "Hostess with the Mostess," and "Sinfully Cinnamon," Cupcake Charlie's offers variety packs to let you sample them all. They have delectable seasonal offerings and accommodate special orders, too. For more, visit cupcakecharlies.com.

[3] WELLWED WEDDING AFFAIR On March 7, 2009, WellWed will introduce its popular bridal-show format to the Cape and Islands region, with an event at the Ocean Edge Resort in Brewster, Massachusetts. Sample food from local caterers and cake makers, meet top wedding pros in person, and survey the best in everything the Cape and Islands have to offer, all in an intimate, beautiful setting.

[4] LYNDA DANDENEAU FLOWERS There's a new face in the neighborhood! After 17 years spent creating stunning floral designs for weddings in Vermont, Lynda Dandeneau Flowers has relocated to Edgartown on Martha's Vineyard. Island locals and destination brides can now experience the exquisite flowers and personal service that brides up north have been privy to for years. Come and get acquainted at Lynda's website, marthasvineyardweddingflowers.com.
